

Society of American Registered Architects
50th Anniversary

2006 National Convention
Kansas City, Missouri
Presentation of New Fellows

Russell J. Angelo, FARA

EDUCATION:

University of Notre Dame, Bachelor of Architecture 1980

CURRENT ARCHITECTURAL REGISTRATIONS:

Illinois, North Carolina, South Carolina and Florida
NCARB Certificate Holder

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS:

Society of American Registered Architects
Host for National Board Meeting and 2004
National Design Awards Program
Member of American Institute of Architects

Mr. Angelo has been a member of SARA since 1996 and has assisted the National Board with several activities. He has brought honor to the profession and our Society by his involvement in public service and his contributions to the practice of architecture. It is with great pleasure that the Fellowship Committee elevates Russell J. Angelo to the status of Fellow at the 2006 National Convention.

PUBLIC/PROFESSIONAL SERVICE:

Board Member and Chairman of Construction for “Rebuilding Together”

National Non-Profit Organization based in Washington, DC

Architectural Technology Instructor – Central Piedmont Community College

Charlotte, North Carolina

Authored Construction Administration Manual for 60 person A/E firm

Provided Construction Admin / Project Management Service for more than 10 large hospital facilities in North and South Carolina

Presented and received UL Design approval for fireproof detail at exterior steel truss system

Prepared and received FEMA approval for Floodproofing System used at a retail center renovation

Awarded a Municipal contract to design a new Medical Examiner’s Facility to incorporate LEED and commissioning certification – Mecklenburg County, North Carolina

PROFESSIONAL DESIGN AWARDS:

Alamance Regional Medical Center – Burlington, North Carolina

Design / Construction Administration with Peterson Associates, p.a.

AIA Committee on Healthcare National Award